D e d i c a t i o n

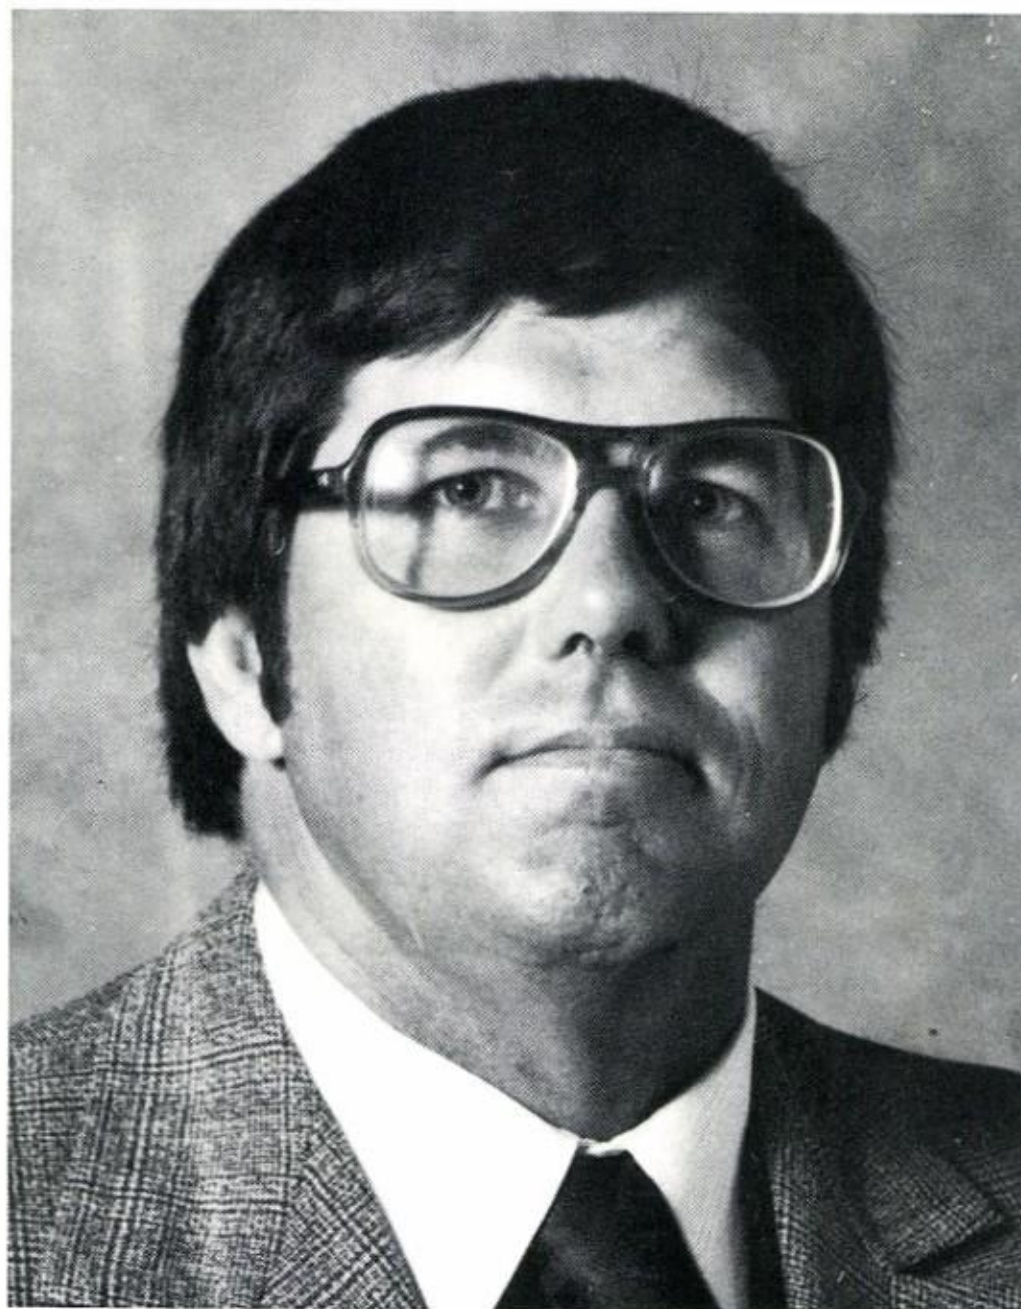

We the graduating class of 1982, proudly dedicate this annual to one who has unselfishly given her time and talents to helping children begin their first year of education. With the love of God in her heart, she makes a special effort to help those who need a little care and understanding. Her enthusiasm is an inspiration to all. We know of no better way to express our love and appreciation than to dedicate this annual to Mrs. Vella Rae Palette.

Today's world presents many challenges. In order to compete, we must prepare ourselves by utilizing available resources. Our most valuable resources being a competent faculty, a conscientious student body, and a supportive community.

I would like to take this opportunity to salute each of you for accepting these challenges and making this a successful school year.

Yanorites

A stylized drawing of a pencil, oriented diagonally from the bottom right towards the word 'Yanorites'. The pencil is depicted with simple black lines, showing its hexagonal body and sharpened lead tip. The tip of the pencil is positioned just below the end of the word, as if it has just finished writing it.

An abstract graphic design featuring two thick, black, curved lines that sweep across the page from the bottom left towards the top right. These lines create a large, open, triangular-shaped space. In the upper right corner, within the space defined by the lines, there is a smaller area filled with dense, parallel, diagonal hatching lines. The word "Advertisement" is written in a cursive script within the large open space.
